Merry Christmas!

the true meaning of christmas - by Wes Fessler

The true meaning of Christmas, has it all been lost in the dizzying shopping and enormous cost?
Has the Christmas tree covered the face on the wall?
Have the families spent all their time at the mall?
Are the candy canes sweeter than praise to his name?
And is Santa at fault for such glory and fame?
Have the presents more meaning than sharing one's love?
Is it wrong to have Christmas lights shining above?
If the savior were here, what do you think he'd say?
Would he tell us it's not right to behave this way?
Or would he say Christmas is as it should be;
that a star shines for him at the top of the tree?
That the people are giving like never before,
and instead of forgetting, they're praising him more.
While so much about Christmas today is so new,
the true meaning of Christmas is all up to you.
